

Example of a Plan:

Title:

Setting - stuck at home

Who or what are the characters? Sarah, Spot, Scoot, Fred

What will the characters be doing at the start of the story?

- Bored
- Played with pets

What will the problem be? Scoot knocked over fish tank

How will the problem be fixed? (resolution) Sarah saved Fred

What will the characters learn or do next? (closing) Play outside next time

Example of Narratives

Year 1

Sarah Saves the Day

Once upon a time a little girl called Sarah was stuck at home. Sarah loved her pets so she started playing with Spot the dog and Scoot the cat. Sarah chased Spot and Spot chased Scoot. Suddenly, Scoot jumped onto the table and knocked the fish tank over! Fred fish went flying! Sarah was really scared that Fred might die so she picked him up and put him back into the tank with some water. Sarah, Spot and Scoot kept playing but this time they went outside!

Year 1 extension

Sarah Saves the Day

One sunny day a little girl called Sarah was stuck at home all by herself. Sarah was really bored. She loved her pets so she started playing with Spot her brown dog and Scoot the black cat. Sarah chased Spot and Spot chased Scoot. They ran around and around the furniture. Suddenly, Scoot jumped onto the table and knocked the fish tank over! Fred fish went flying into the air! Sarah was really scared that Fred might die so she quickly picked him up and put him back into the tank with some water. She cleaned up the mess before her mum and dad saw it. Sarah, Spot and Scoot kept playing but this time they went outside!

Year 2

Sarah Saves the Day

"I'm so bored!" screamed Sarah. It was a bright, sunny day and Sarah was at home all by herself. She'd finished her favourite book, played with her magnetic blocks and tidied up her room.

Sarah really loved her pets too so she started playing with Spot her dog and Scoot her cat. Sarah chased Spot and Spot chased Scoot. They were having so much fun running around and around and up and down. Suddenly, Scoot jumped onto the table and knocked the fish tank over! Fred fish went flying into the air! Sarah was really scared that Fred might die so she quickly picked him up and put him back into the tank with some water. She cleaned up the mess just before her mum and dad walked into the room.

"Phew, that was lucky! Maybe we should play this game outside."

Year v2 extension

Sarah Saves the Day

"I'm so bored!" moaned Sarah.

It was a bright, beautiful, spring afternoon and Sarah was stuck at home all by herself. She'd finished her favourite book, played with her magnetic blocks and tidied up her room.

Sarah really loved her pets too, so she started playing with Spot her cheeky dog and Scoot her crazy cat. Sarah scampered after Spot and Spot chased after Scoot. They were having so much fun running around and around the furniture and up and down the stairs. Suddenly, Scoot jumped onto the table and knocked the fish tank over! Fred fish went flying! His little fins started flapping as he landed safely on the sofa. "Oh no!" Sarah shouted. She was really scared that Fred might die so she quickly scooped him up and put him back into the tank with some water. Luckily, she cleaned up the mess just before her mum and dad walked into the room.

"Phew, that was lucky! Maybe we should play this game outside from now on."